NBA Cares is the league's global community outreach initiative that addresses important social issues such as education, youth and family development, and health and wellness. The NBA, its teams, and players support a range of programs, partners, and initiatives that strive to positively impact children and families worldwide. As part of the league's mission to demonstrate leadership in social responsibility, NBA Cares reaches communities through philanthropy, hands-on service, and legacy projects. Since the program's October 2005 launch, the league, players, and teams have raised more than $110 million for charity, provided more than one million hours of hands-on service, and built more than 425 places where kids and families can live, learn, or play in communities around the world. NBA Cares reaches millions of children and adults through special programs like NBA FIT and Basketball without Borders. The league and its teams and players also promote environmental awareness and sustainability through NBA Green. During high-profile league events like NBA All-Star and The Finals, community outreach efforts use the power of sport to effect positive social change. Thanks to strong partnerships with internationally recognized community organizations such as Make-A-Wish, UNICEF, KaBOOM!, Habitat for Humanity, Boys & Girls Clubs of America, Hands On Network, Special Olympics, the Global Business Coalition on HIV/AIDS, Tuberculosis and Malaria, and the UN Foundation, NBA Cares works to improve communities in need around the world. RUMBLE'S STORY:

For hundreds of years the tale has been told around Native American campfires. A great herd of American bison was lost in the Arbuckle Mountains during a ferocious storm – the kind only Oklahoma can produce.

Hail fell and tornadoes spun all around the herd as they stampeded, trying to find their way down to the safety of the plains.

One lone bison stayed behind as he helped each of his friends escape down a treacherous ravine ... once all of his friends were safe he began his descent only to find his way blocked by fallen boulders.

Lost, he climbed to the tallest peak; left to face the storm alone ¬and searching for a way down the mountain, he was struck by a bolt of lightning.

The bolt did not destroy him, but, by the power of the god of thunder, changed him. Suddenly, he walked on two legs like a man. He possessed amazing strength and agility – he could jump higher, run faster, think more clearly than any beast.

But because he was no longer just a bison – and yet not a man – he was alone.

With many sightings, the legend grew through the years, of a mighty bison, with remarkable powers, roaming the hills alone.

Not until a group of men who carried similar powers came to Oklahoma City did he find somewhere he belonged. These men also possessed the power to jump higher, run faster, and perform acrobatic dunks more spectacular than anyone in the land. They too carried the roar of Thunder every time they took to the court.

So he joined their team. And the new legend of Rumble was born.

THE FORD CENTER

FORD CENTER

Home to the NBA's Oklahoma City Thunder, Ford Center also plays host to major concerts, family shows, sporting events and the latest in show stopping entertainment. While it is managed by SMG, Ford Center is owned by the City of Oklahoma City and was the premier project of its visionary capital improvement program (MAPS) to finance new and upgraded sports, entertainment, cultural and convention facilities with a one-cent sales tax.

FORD CENTER IMPROVEMENTS

Oklahoma City voters overwhelmingly approved a one-cent sales tax on March 4, 2008 to fund major upgrades to Ford Center. The 15-month tax took effect on January 1, 2009 and will expire on March 31, 2010. Plans include a grand entrance, multistory atrium, new restaurants, clubs, concession areas, bunker suites, terrace suites, roof top gardens, locker rooms, a warm-up basketball court, team offices and a family fun zone.

On July 31, 2008, the Professional Basketball Club, LLC., owners of the Oklahoma City Thunder NBA franchise, purchased the Tulsa 66ers of the NBA Development League from Southwest Basketball, LLC. Oklahoma City became the third NBA team to purchase an NBA D-League affiliate, joining the Los Angeles Lakers (L.A. D-Fenders) and the San Antonio Spurs (Austin Toros) as sole owners of their affiliates.

The 66ers posted a record of 15-35 in the 2008-09 season. The season was highlighted by the call-up of 66ers point guard Shaun Livingston to the Oklahoma City Thunder. Livingston averaged 9.5 points and 6.0 assists in 11 games with Tulsa. Thunder players Kyle Weaver and DJ White also spent time in Tulsa during the 2008-09 season. Shooting guard Gary Forbes led the 66ers in scoring during the 2008-09 season with 18 points per game while shooting 51% from the field.

Prior to the 2009-10 season the 66ers announced that the team will play all of their home games in the newly renovated Tulsa Convention Center. The renovated Convention Center, located on the corner of Seventh and Houston in downtown, will feature three new High Definition LED video boards, six suites including a 40-person party suite and a major renovation of the exterior and south entrance.

SAM PRESTI

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT & GENERAL MANAGER

The 2009-10 season marks the third year for Sam Presti as the Executive Vice President and General Manager of the Oklahoma City Thunder. Professional Basketball Club Chairman Clayton Bennett appointed Presti to his current position on June 7, 2007.

During his tenure with the Thunder, Presti has assembled the building blocks for long-term success both on and off the court. Commencing with the 2007 draft, Presti selected Kevin Durant, the University of Texas standout with the team's No. 2 overall pick. Since then, Durant has gone onto win the NBA's Rookie Of The Year award while posting a career scoring average of 22.7 points per game, the fifth highest total for any second year player since 1989.

Through the NBA draft, Presti has continued to add the pieces needed to achieve the organization's singular focus of sustaining success on the floor and in the community. Most notably, Presti selected forward Jeff Green (No. 5 overall) on draft night 2007 through a trade with the Boston Celtics and UCLA guard Russell Westbrook with the teams No. 4 overall selection in 2008.

This past summer, Presti nabbed Arizona State guard James Harden with the No. 3 overall selection while also acquiring the rights to Ohio State center Byron Mullens (No. 24 overall) and Robert Vaden (No. 54 overall) in the 2009 NBA draft.

Since moving to Oklahoma City in July of 2008, Presti has stressed the importance of community involvement for both Thunder players and staff. Under his leadership, the Thunder went onto make the second most community relations appearances in the NBA this past season.

Prior to joining the Thunder, the 32-year-old Presti held a variety of roles with the San Antonio Spurs from 2000 to 2007. Most recently, he served as the team's assistant general manager from September of 2005 - June of 2007. Presti led the design and implementation of the Spurs scouting database, a system that is now being used by numerous teams throughout the NBA. From 2003 – 2005, he served as the director of player personnel. Prior to that role, Presti was the assistant director of scouting in 2002 and 2003. He joined the Spurs organization as an intern in the summer of 2000 before being promoted to special assistant in the summer of 2001.

Presti earned his bachelor's degree in 2000 in communications, politics and law from Emerson College in Boston, where he was the first Rhodes Scholar nominee in school history. The Concord, Mass. native served as team captain of the Emerson College basketball team during both his junior and senior seasons. In addition, Presti earned All-Academic honors two times and was also twice selected to the Great Northeast Athletic Conference All-Tournament team. He was honored with the Emerson College Young Alumnus Award in 2005.

An accomplished drummer, Presti has produced three music CDs with all proceeds benefiting the Extra Ordinary Needs Fund at Children's Hospital in Boston.

One of the first employees in Oklahoma City in 2009, Byrnes led the effort to build the initial ticket request list and successfully steered the sale of 13,000 full season tickets. Equally as important was the development of the in-arena experience – quickly earning national recognition as one of the loudest and most fun NBA venues. The fan engagement is fueled with initiatives such as pre-game activities in Thunder Alley, interactive experiences on the concourse and throughout Loud City and the participation of Rumble, the team's iconic mascot.

Previously, Byrnes served as executive vice president of business operations for the NHL's Phoenix Coyotes. In Phoenix, Byrnes led several initiatives to stimulate growth in ticket sales, ticket revenue, suite leases and corporate partnerships. He was also the catalyst for re-branding the organization with a new corporate identity and team uniforms.

The new branding campaign coincided with Byrnes' key objective of transitioning the organization and arena management group into a new arena in Glendale, Arizona. Throughout construction, he was responsible for brand integration, sight lines, premium and regular seating environments, luxury suite design and hospitality venues ensuring that every detail added to the warmth of the Coyotes' home ice. Byrnes' strong leadership skills were an asset to the Coyotes organization and quickly earned him the respect of employees, media and community leaders.

Prior to joining the Coyotes, Byrnes built nearly 10 years of experience with the NHL's Dallas Stars and MLB's Texas Rangers. As an original employee of the Stars' front office in 1993, he was instrumental in the Stars' ascension from a start-up franchise to being recognized as 'best in class' by the end of the decade. With Byrnes' guidance, the Stars led the league in ticket revenue by the 2001-02 season with 15,000 season ticket holders, a waiting list of more than 5,000 people and a record sellout streak of 194 consecutive games.

In 1999, Southwest Sports Group was formed to manage the combined sales and marketing operations of the Stars, Rangers, Mesquite Championship Rodeo and Frisco RoughRiders minor-league baseball team. Byrnes efficiently managed the fully integrated programs to leverage each franchise and maximize sales platforms. Leach began his career as an on-air personality in radio for eight years in both Houston and San Diego. He was hired fulltime by the Houston Rockets in 2000 in the Game Operations department. Prior to joining the Rockets fulltime, Leach was responsible for game music in Houston during their Championship seasons in 1994 and 1995, and actually has a ring to prove it. He helped move the Rockets into the new Toyota Center and played in integral role in creating a new interactive NBA experience with, drummers, break dancers, tumblers and world champion jump ropers that were all part of the team's branded game-night entertainment. Leach was recruited by the Charlotte Bobcats to start the game entertainment department when Charlotte was awarded a team in 2004.

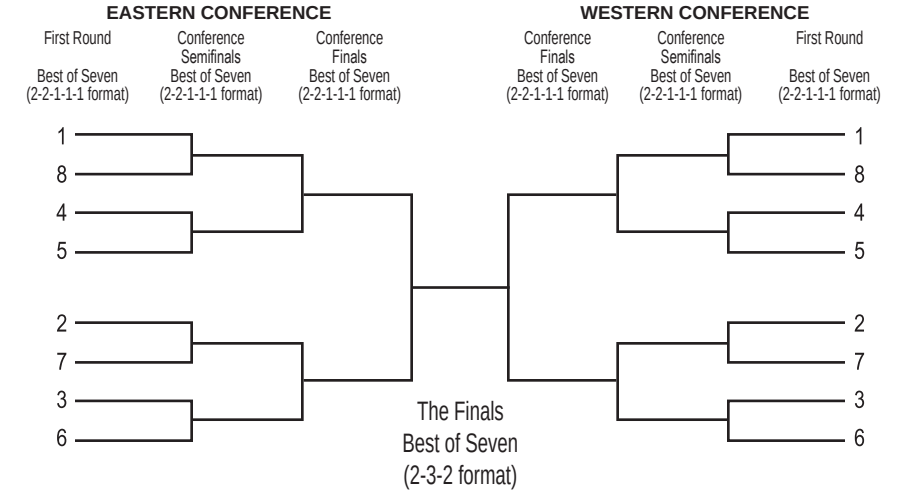
NBA PLAYOFF STRUCTURE/ATTENDANCE

2010 NBA PLAYOFF STRUCTURE



Eight teams from each conference qualify for the NBA Playoffs. The three division winners and the team with the next-best record from each conference will receive the top four seeds and will be ranked Nos. 1-4 according to their regular-season records. The remaining four teams in each conference will be seeded 5-8 according to their won-lost records. In each round of the playoffs, the team with the better regular-season won-lost record gets the home-court advantage.

All rounds of the playoffs are a best-of-seven series. Each best-of-seven series will play 2-2-1-1-1 format except for the NBA Finals, which is a 2-3-2 format.

BRIAN DAVIS

TELEVISION PLAY-BY-PLAY ANNOUNCER

Brian Davis is in his second season as the team's television voice. A veteran basketball broadcaster, Davis returned to the NBA in 2004 as host of Seattle Sonics broadcasts on FSN Northwest.

Davis regularly covered the Chicago Bulls during the Michael Jordan era and became a contributor to NBA Radio, hosting game broadcasts and serving as sideline reporter for the network during the 1991 playoffs and NBA Finals. He later hosted Bulls broadcasts on FSN Chicago and occasionally called Sonics games in Seattle. He has an extensive play-by-play resume at the college level, including the Big Ten, Pac-10, Conference USA and the Mid-American Conference.

Davis has called games at the professional level in three other sports: football, as radio voice of the Seattle Seahawks; hockey, in a reserve role with Chicago Blackhawks; and soccer, with Major League Soccer's Chicago Fire. He has also worked as pre-season play-by-play announcer for the NFL's Arizona Cardinals.

As a sports anchor for CBS Radio and its Chicago all-news affiliate, Davis covered major events including the Olympics, NBA Finals and Stanley Cup Finals. His resume includes football play-by-play in the Big Ten, Pac-10 and MAC. He is an accomplished interviewer and talk show host and has won several professional awards, including one for investigative journalism during his days as a news reporter in Chicago.

Davis holds a journalism degree from Northwestern University. He and his wife, Judy, have two children and make their home in the Oklahoma City area.

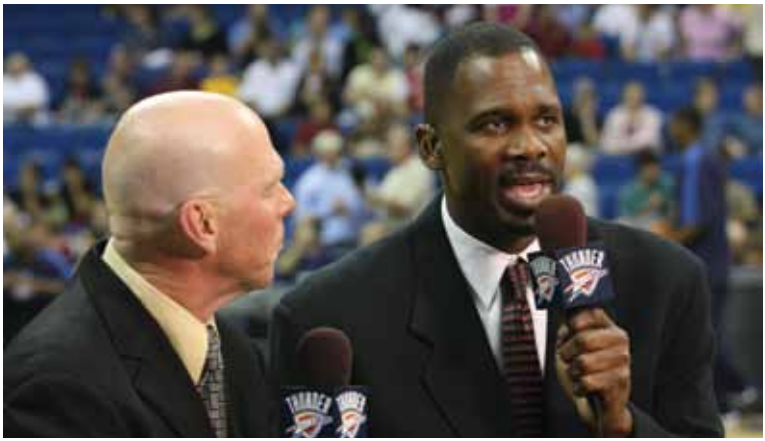
GRANT LONG

TELEVISION COLOR ANALYST

Grant Long begins his second season with the Oklahoma City Thunder as the team's television color analyst. He will partner with play-by-play announcer Brian Davis for all 82 regular-season games this coming NBA season.

Long was the color analyst with the NBA's Atlanta Hawks broadcast team for two years and served as an analyst with Turner Broadcasting & FOX Network. He was the Hawks' color analyst during the 2003-04 season.

The Eastern Michigan alum spent 14 seasons as a player in the NBA after being drafted 33rd overall in the 1988 NBA Draft by the Miami Heat. He also played for Atlanta, Detroit, Vancouver/Memphis and Boston. In his 14 seasons in the NBA, Long played in over 800 games.



MATT PINTO

RADIO PLAY-BY-PLAY ANNOUNCER

Veteran NBA play-by-play announcer Matt Pinto begins his second season with the franchise and will call all 82 regular-season games on the team's flagship station, WWLS The Sports Animal (640 AM/98.1 FM). Pinto joined the franchise last season and served as play-by-play announcer for one season in Seattle.

Prior to joining the franchise, Pinto was in Los Angeles where he has served as the radio voice of the NBA's Clippers for two seasons. From 1997-2005, Pinto was on the Dallas Mavericks' broadcast team, serving as the radio play-by-play voice from 1997-2001 and the television voice from 2001-2005. While in Dallas, Pinto also worked as a talk show host for KESN (ESPN 103.3 FM) and was the play-by-play announcer of the NCAA Division IAA regional game of the week for The Football Network. In 1997, Pinto was named best play-by-play announcer for the state of Texas by the Associated Press.

From 1990-1997, Pinto was the radio play-by-play voice of the NBA's Charlotte Hornets. Pinto was also the television play-by-play voice of UN C-Charlotte basketball games and was an occasional host of ESPN national sports talk shows and the play-by-play voice of Westwood One college basketball.

The INTEGRIS Health Thunder Development Center

Officials from the City of Oklahoma City, INTEGRIS Health and the Oklahoma City Thunder broke ground this past August 27th on the Thunder's new practice facility scheduled to open prior to the 2010-11 season. The new facility will officially be known as The INTEGRIS Health Thunder Development Center.

Funding for construction of the practice facility and renovations to the Ford Center comes from a one-cent sales tax approved by Oklahoma City voters on March 4, 2008. The 15-month tax took effect on January 1, 2009 and will expire March 31, 2010. As part of the lease agreement, the Thunder will make an annual rent payment to the City of Oklahoma City.

During the groundbreaking ceremony, Oklahoma City Mayor Mick Cornett commented, "Having the Thunder in Oklahoma City has been a tremendous sense of pride for our community. When the citizens of Oklahoma City passed the Big League City initiative to renovate the Ford Center and build an NBA-leading practice facility, we all looked forward to this day. This building will be one of the finest practice facilities in the NBA, and we're very excited to be able to provide this building to the Thunder."

The new facility will feature a 27-seat team classroom that will allow coaches and players to use video and computer technology to assist in the continued development of the team. There will also be an expanded sports medicine and hydrotherapy area that will benefit the Thunder's medical and training staff in the prevention and rehabilitation of injuries.

INTEGRIS Health is the official health care provider of the Oklahoma City Thunder.
